DYNAMITE WARFARE.

Extraordinary Precautions for Its Suppression in Cuba.

HAVANA, Oct. 15.—The use of dynamite by the insurgents along the line of railroads is causing great uneasiness, and it has been considered necessary to employ special measures to suppress the practice. It will be recalled that on several occasions recently dynamite bombs have been hurled at railroad trains containing passengers and crews of troops, and dynamite has also been used to blow up the tracks. Considerable damage has been done in this manner, and it is feared that greater harm may come from the practice.

With a view to checking it and of preventing further outbreaks, General Martinez de Campos has published an order that all persons and places shall be held down and all persons shall be held up in the tracks. Considerable damage has been done in this manner, and it is feared that greater harm may come from the practice.

Captain General de Campos also publishes an order which prohibits that he will continue his practice of punishing all rebels who lay down their arms and surrender themselves to the authorities, except the chiefs. These latter are subject to the decision of the captain general, who will investigate to ascertain whether any of them have been guilty of outrages in the conduct of the last revolt.

Was He the Latin Hero?

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Oct. 15.—The disposition of 100 acres of land near Marletts, Fla., hinges on the outcome of a suit to determine whether Rastus G. Gage, formerly a well-known business man of Middletown, this state, unlawfully wedded two women. The land in question was the property of Miss Elizabeth Hawkins, whom Gage married in Florida in 1870. She died in 1882, and there being no children, Gage inherited the land. Robert G. Hawkins, a brother of the dead woman, contests this disposition of the property on the ground that the marriage of Gage to Elizabeth Hawkins was null and void, it being alleged that Gage had married a Jane Reynolds at Middletown in the '60's, and that she was alive at the time of the second marriage. Evidence will be taken tomorrow at Middletown.

Prize Fighters Held for a Hearing.

NEWTON, L. I., Oct. 15.—Young Griffin and "Kid" Lavigne, who fought before the Empire Athletic club on Saturday night in Maspeth, were arrested on a warrant sworn out by a minister, Rev. Edward McGuffee, were arraigned yesterday afternoon. The charge was that the men were about to break the law by engaging in a prize fight, but several officers declined to serve the warrant before the fight was over. The case was postponed by Justice Montevideo until Saturday. Complainant McGuffee refused to go into the court room to press the charge. It is probable that when the case comes up the charge will be changed, and that the men will have to answer for engaging in a prize fight.

Another Trades Union of Employees.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 15.—Nine companies engaged in the manufacture of wooden and iron poles and shafts for carriages and wagons, and having a combined capital of $750,000, met here and organized two central companies, to which will be sold the product of the factories at uniform prices, and through which the trade will be supplied. Both these companies will have offices in Cleveland.

FOR SOCIAL PURITY.

A Congress for Good Morals in Session at Baltimore.

THE INEQUALITIES OF LAWS.

Legislative Enactments Which Discriminate Against Girlhood and in Favor of Immoral Men—Necessity for a Single Standard of Purity for Both Sexes.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 15.—The first national purity congress, under the auspices of the American Purity alliance, convened in this city last night and will continue in session for three days. Social reformers from all parts of the country are present as delegates. President Powell, in opening the meeting, said that the objects of the congress were: "The repression of vice, the better protection of the young, the rescue of the fallen, to extend the White Cross work among men and to proclaim the law of purity as equally binding upon men and women." The speaker declared that "age of consent" statutes discriminate against girlhood and in favor of immoral men, and are for the most part a disgrace to the several states of the Union. He expressed the hope that the present congress would have the effect of emphasizing the necessity for a single standard of purity for both sexes.

"There is no religion," said he, "where there is not purity of thought and life. Impurity is the death of religion. It shuts the eyes from seeing God, seals the ear against his holy affections, and buries out of reach all desires for spiritual associations. We are unfeeling in our attitude towards the enemies of virtue, and have only blows of indignant wrath for all who seek to legislate into the nation's life ethical theories of protection to crime that decency and divinity alike condemn. We have with increasing feeling the fashions of society that make cruel discrimination of sex that flatter and fawn upon the impure man, while loathing the impure woman, and while women's modesty in the adoption of any custom of dress or amusement that detracts her from her regal place as head of the home and leader in the sweet civilities of life and companion in every noble relation, we still have tender compassion for all who will return and be the fountain of innocence and abandon all evil ways."

Among the delegates, most of whom have papers on various subjects which they will read during the conference, are Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Elbridge T. Gerry, Anthony Comstock, the Rev. Antonette Brown Blackwell and scores of others of almost equal prominence.

Had Fasted for Over Two Months.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 15.—Mrs. John A. Grover, who died at Laramie on Sunday of starvation, has taken no nourishment, except a glass of milk, for over two months. From 200 pounds in weight she wasted away to seventy-five pounds. An extraordinary circumstance is that the alimentary canal failed absolutely to perform its office for ten weeks prior to death. Local physicians offer as a possible explanation the theory that some brain disorder interfered with the natural processes of the body. She apparently suffered no pain. She was a half sister of Sarah Althea Hill Sharon.

Elevated to the Peerage.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Sir Algernon Borthwick, bart., M. P., proprietor of The Morning Post, the Right Hon. Baron Henry D. Womms, formerly under secretary of state for the colonies, and the Hon. Horace Curzon Plunkett have been raised to the peerage.

THE EXECUTION OF STOKES.

Summary Hanging of an Englishman by Order of a Belgian Official.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes an interview with Dr. Michaux, the Belgian official who is said to have been the only European witness of the trial and execution by hanging of Stokes, the English trader who was executed by order of Captain Lorthaire, the Belgian commander at Lindi, Congo Free State.

Dr. Michaux is quoted as saying that on Jan. 15 of the present year Stokes was brought before an alleged court martial. Captain Lorthaire composing the entire court and he and the doctor being the only white present. The only witnesses were a few Arabs, who stated they had purchased rifles from Stokes. The trial lasted between one and two hours, after which Captain Lorthaire announced that Stokes was sentenced to death, and that he would be executed on the following day.

Continuing, Dr. Michaux said: "All my interviews were futile. Captain Lorthaire refused to grant even a few days' reprieve. At 5 o'clock the next morning a servant called me, and informed me that Stokes had been stricken with apoplexy, or that he had poisoned himself, and I was started to find a gallows and a new made grave. Stokes had been executed and buried while I slept. As to the question of his guilt or otherwise, I must be silent."

Thieving Bank Cashier Confesses.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., Oct. 15.—Last Wednesday Cashier J. R. Coleman, of the State bank, left town suddenly, and a big defalcation in his accounts has been discovered. Yesterday the bank was closed by the state bank commissioner. On Saturday last Coleman confessed to D. P. Coome, president of the bank, who met the defaulter in St. Louis. He said he had lost about $25,000 in stock and bond speculation, and that the thefts had been systematically practiced for a period of over two years and covered up by manipulation of the bank's books. The loss will fall wholly upon the stockholders, as the assets of the bank are amply sufficient to pay all depositors. Coleman has not yet been arrested.

Pennsylvania Defeats Lehigh.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—The University of Pennsylvania eleven yesterday defeated Lehigh at football by the one sided score of 31 to 0. The varsity boys played the best game they have yet put up this season, and the score was a revelation to their most ardent supporters. The Lehigh team was the strongest that the Pennsylvania have yet tackled, and the latter were able to score thirty points in the first half and twenty-four in the second. The Lehigh team made but two gains during the entire game, and these were eight and ten yards, respectively.

Creedon Defeats Craig.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Frank Craig, the "Harden Coffee Cooler," and Dan Creedon, well known in America, fought a twenty round battle at the National Sporting club last night, and Creedon won in the twentieth round. Thousands of the rough element crowded outside the National Sporting club, and the police had great difficulty in preserving order. About 9 o'clock a stylish brougham brought Lord Londsdale to the scene of the battle. The crowd of spectators included a plentiful array of bearers of titles.

A Runaway Boy's Mixup.

ANSONIA, Pa., Oct. 15.—Mixup, aged 17 years, who ran away from his home in New York city two weeks ago, was run over by a Fall Brook freight train near here yesterday and his right leg was cut off above the knee. He tried to jump the train and was knocked under the car by striking a nail post. The boy had started out together with his peddling machine, leaving a position as typewriter in his uncle's office because his wages were small.

Mr. Hite, his sister and one child were thrown out with great violence. Mrs. Croft being instantly killed and the others all seriously injured.

OPPOSING AUTHORITY.

Preparing for the Big Prize Fight at Hot Springs.

BUT GOVERNOR CLARKE FORBIDS IT

Arkansas Chief Executive Will Not Act Under a Law Relating to Riots and Rebellions, Which Gives Him Unlimited Powers, and Is Against Vigorous Action.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 15.—Governor Clarke yesterday furnished a fresh evidence of his determination to prevent the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight at Hot Springs, or in Arkansas. A telegram was sent by the governor to Brigadier General John A. Bland, of Forest City, of the Arkansas State Guard, summarizing him to a conference at once. The meaning of the conference is that the governor desires to acquire himself with the available strength of the state militia, so that he may act knowingly if the situation at Hot Springs reaches a crisis where the services of the militia may be required.

According to the offers contained in telegrams and letters received at the executive office Governor Clarke estimates that the services of 10,000 men are at his disposal for the purpose of putting down the fight if needed. These offers come from all parts of the state.

A vigorous determination to prevent the fight is plainly discernable in the significant proceedings at the executive office. Indeed, Governor Clarke was more emphatic than ever today in saying that the fight would not be allowed to come off in Arkansas. He goes so far as to say that if the affair occurs as advertised, at Hot Springs, he will resign and try to find an office that he can run. The governor says Corbett and Fitzsimmons have been warned, and if they now arrive at Hot Springs bent on the mission of fighting, their presence in the city or county will be considered an overt act and will be treated accordingly.

The governor says that he realizes that Hot Springs is anxious to retrieve its past misfortunes, and he would like to help the city, but in this instance his duty is plain, and he will use his utmost diligence and power to do what it is his duty to do. Governor Clarke said he did not want to see any bloodshed as a result of the pugilists' refusal to refrain from making preparations to fight. He sincerely hoped it would be avoided.

The governor finds that the law of 1891 was not legally enacted, leaving the state without a law on the subject of prize fighting. The law of 1878, in his opinion, invests in the executive ample authority for carrying out the policy he has decided to adopt. This law does not refer to prize fights, but rather to riots and rebellion. Under its operation the governor is allowed almost unlimited latitude, and could declare the district in "which the disturbance occurs" to be in rebellion against the state, and could not only drive out by force all the parties connected with the disturbance, but could arrest and imprison without process of law.

When questioned in reference to the proposition to change the affair into a glove contest, Governor Clarke said that he could make no distinction between a prize contest and a prize fight. It was a prize fight no matter what it was called. Martin Julian has wired the mayor of Hot Springs that he would not leave Corbett. Corbett with Fitzsimmons for that prize until a sufficient sum of money is raised by the citizens of this city and deposited in some responsible man's hands to defray all the legal expenses that may arise.

DESPITE OFFICIAL WARNINGS

Preparations Are Being Made for a "Soft Glove Contest" at Hot Springs.

HOT SPRINGS, Oct. 15.—Everybody is hopeful that the big fight will take place, and preparations for the mill are being pushed rapidly. Brady arrived Saturday evening from San Antonio, and does not appear in the least disconcerted by the attitude of the governor. He has telegraphed Corbett: "Come on at once; everything fixed; protection guaranteed." Brady says Corbett will arrive tomorrow morning, and will go into training at once.

In order to comply with the state laws, the articles of agreement of the Florida Athletic club will be changed from a ten-round fight to a limited number of rounds, the referee being vested with power to stop the contest when in his opinion it becomes brutal. The contestants are to box with soft gloves. The attempt to pull off the fight will be made at Whittington Park.

The French Expedition of 1900.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Ambassador Patrice has returned from France with a large fund of information concerning the international expedition of 1900, which is to be held in Paris on a scale hitherto the advent of a new century. The French government is in charge of the expedition, and the American will command one of the divisions of his government to the United States and to individual exhibitors to take part in the exposition. The expedition will leave on April 15, 1900, and will last until Nov. 5. The French government has been in the extension work incident to an advent of this magnitude.

Keep Their Vow to Do Murder.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 15.—Sheriff L. B. Brooks was slain and killed at Goldsboro, Ga., by Sylvanus, by Sol and Callie Zeigler. The killing is the result of a quarrel which began a year ago when Brooks and George Zeigler, father of the two boys who did the shooting, got into a difficulty on the Savannah train, in which Zeigler was killed and Brooks badly wounded. Since that time the two Zeigler boys have been searching for Brooks, having sworn to kill him on sight.

Fleeing Convicts Recaptured.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Oct. 15.—Four convicts made a dash for liberty yesterday from the state prison here. One fell from the prison walls and broke his leg. The other men were captured by the guards.

THE VANDERBILT REUNION.

The Marriage of Miss Consuelo Will Reunite Her Parents.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 15.—It has become almost an accepted rumor among the members of the four hundred of New York, and particularly among those who compose the Meadow Brook Hunt club of Long Island, says The Eagle, that a reconciliation is probable between Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, and that immediately following the marriage of their daughter Consuelo with the Duke of Marlborough a second ceremony will unite the parents a second time in matrimony.

The marriage of Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt with the Duke of Marlborough is recognized as more than a union of her father than of her mother, and this union has been used by the father of both parents to bring about a happy and lasting reconciliation between them. This is a long kept secret in the highest circles of the four hundred, but it has been set so happily that it is no longer a closely guarded.

In the settlement of the marriage contract the Duke of Marlborough is understood to have received $400,000, and an additional $100,000 was settled on Miss Consuelo.

A College Professor's Downfall.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 15.—A man giving the name of John Mueller, but who is believed to be Dr. John W. Overton, of Des Moines, Ia., was sentenced to ten days' imprisonment in the county jail yesterday for drunkenness. In February, 1893, Dr. John W. Overton, instructor in the medical department of Drake university, John Shaffer, observer at the United States signal service station, J. W. Martin, a hostler, and J. E. Sloan, a liverman, were arrested by the Des Moines police officers, charged with robbing the grave of an old soldier. A cab driver who had been asked to help the ghouls backed out, notified the police of the robbery and the four men were arrested with the corpse in their possession. Overton was released on bail and disappeared, as did also Shaffer.

Shot Into a Crowd of His Countrymen.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Oct. 15.—A shooting affair occurred at Bortoe, Pa., a number of Austrians returning from a festival had occasion to pass the house of a fellow countryman named Joseph Puzo. They thought they would have a little fun and began throwing stones at the house. Puzo ran upstairs and began firing into the crowd with his Winchester. Joe Pipka fell seriously wounded about the lower region of the back. John Bernish was wounded in the right hand and leg, and George Baran in the right arm and face. Pipka may not recover. Puzo was arrested, but was afterward released on habeas corpus proceedings.

Four Men Dead in a Mine.

STORY CITY, Ia., Oct. 15.—The shaft house at the Summit Coal mine, three miles south of here, burned on Saturday night. Four miners, Albert Peterson, single; Alexander Eastman, single; Inge Ingelman, single, and George Payne, a married man, were sufficed to death. The engineer had built a fire in the furnace which heats the shaft, and left for supper. While he was gone the timbers close to the furnace became ignited, and the mine rapidly filled with smoke. He returned and attempted to draw the imprisoned men from the mine, when the cable broke, precipitating them to the bottom of the shaft.

Mr. Roe's Challenge Accepted.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The challenge for the America's cup by Charles D. Rose, of England, has been formally accepted. Secretary J. V. S. Oddie, of the New York Yacht club, last night sent cablegrams announcing the fact to Secretary Theellson, of the Royal Victoria Yacht club, and to the challenger. These cablegrams were the result of a meeting of the New York Yacht club, which had been specially called to consider the challenge. Commodore Brown appointed the committee of 1895, headed by ex-Commodore Smith, to arrange the conditions of the match.

Threatened Strike Probably Averted.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 15.—It is thought here that all danger of a strike in the Clearfield and Beech Creek regions is over for the present, but the agitation for an advance will be resumed later on. The convention at Clearfield this afternoon will be well attended by representatives from the central and northern Pennsylvania coal fields, but the strong sentiment prevailing among the Clearfield and Beech Creek miners against a strike is likely to have the result of postponing definite action on the refusal of the operators to grant any advance.

Fugitive Cashier Arrested.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 15.—Fred W. Farrar, of Perry, O. T., was arrested at the Elk hotel yesterday upon instructions from Sheriff John A. Hanson, of Perry. Farrar was cashier of a bank at Perry, and is charged with receiving deposits after the bank became insolvent. He claims that he resigned Sept. 10, and the bank failed after that date. It is understood that his attorney has applied for a writ of habeas corpus. Sheriff Hansen is now on his way here with requisition papers.

Murdered by a Brutal Drunkard.

STEVENSVILLE, O., Oct. 15.—At Hopevale, O., Miss Buckingham, a highly respectable young lady, was met by a drunken man named Leggett. The girl stepped off the sidewalk to avoid Leggett, but he grabbed her by the arm and with an oath drew a revolver and shot the young woman through the heart. He escaped, but was quickly overtaken by a mob which was about to lynch him when he was rescued by the officers of the law.

Italian Murderer Sentenced to Death.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 15.—Joseph Roschino, the second person to be found guilty of murder in the first degree, and the fourth tried for homicide in Lackawanna county, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Gunster to be hanged. Roschino is an Italian, as was his victim, Frank Conforti. The tragedy occurred at Dunmore on Nov. 11, 1894. The case will be appealed.

THE KOREAN UPRISING.

Reports of the Affair Received by the Japanese Minister.

LANDING OF FOREIGN MARINES.

War-ships of Russia, the United States and Great Britain send Armed Representatives Ashore—The Report of the Queen's Assassination Credited at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Information of the formidable uprising in Korea, resulting in the disappearance and probable death of the queen, and the landing of military forces by the United States and European powers, has been received by Minister Kurino, of Japan, from the foreign office at Tokio. It is quite sensational, indicating the landing of marines by Russia, the United States and probably Great Britain.

The latest dispatch to Minister Kurino states that a force of Russian marines, forty in number, have been landed. Thus far they have confined themselves to guarding the Russian legation at Seoul.

United States marines were landed from the Yorktown to the number of sixteen. It is believed also that British marines have been landed. Besides these the Japanese have a considerable force of soldiers at Seoul, who have been preserving order. The dispatches come from Tokio, and communicate the substance of dispatches received from General Muira, the Japanese envoy at Seoul. They are dated from the 9th to the 12th inst. It appears from these dispatches that the trouble had its inception through the queen's dislike of the newly organized soldiery of Korea. The old soldiers had the primitive equipment of the far east, but with the progress of Japanese influence in Korea two battalions of Korean troops were organized on modern methods. Each battalion numbered 600 men, armed with modern weapons. They were well drilled and officered.

When the queen showed her disfavor toward these new troops they appealed to the Tai Won Kun, a powerful chief who has long been in enmity with the queen. He accepted the leadership of the new troops, and at the head of one battalion entered the queen's palace. The Tokio dispatches do not state specifically what became of the queen, further than that she has disappeared and cannot be located. The officials are inclined to believe, however, that the unofficial reports of the queen's death are untrue. The Japanese government, the dispatches further state, has acted quickly on the reports, and has appointed a commission to inquire into the facts.

In the meantime it is emphatically denied that the queen's death, if it has occurred, was due to the Japanese. One report is that a Japanese Soshi killed the queen. This is not yet confirmed in the dispatches received here. The Japanese say the Soshis are an irresponsible and lawless set, and that their acts cannot be laid to the Japanese people or government.

General Muira's reports also cover the work of Japanese troops in preserving order. These troops were stationed opposite the palace, having secured this point of vantage some time since through the Korean government. They took no part in the attack on the palace, but after it had occurred, when the native troops were fleeing and the new battalions were enforcing their success in capturing the palace, the Japanese troops aided in preventing bloodshed and disorder. It is probable that some deaths occurred during the melee. Following this came the landing of United States and Russian marines, and, as is believed, the landing of the British.

The latest indications are that the Tai Won Kun and the king are in control of affairs at the Korean capital. The king has been the nominal ruler, but the queen has heretofore been recognized as the real ruler. The influence of the king and the Tai Won Kun are distinctly favorable to the Japanese.

At the Korean legation here no word has been received from the disturbed capital. The officials are much exercised, and do not doubt that the queen has met her death, although they are not ready to abandon hope. In case official confirmation is received there will be such formal ceremony as is usual on the death of a sovereign. The legation will go into mourning, but there is not likely to be a funeral service, although this has been considered as a further mark of respect.

Honolulu Fears an Invasion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—Steamer China, just arrived from Honolulu, says that cholera has about run its course in that city. But one case has been reported since the last mail, making a total of eighty-seven to date. The board of health has lifted the local quarantine, and freight of all descriptions can be sent to the neighboring islands. Passenger travel is still restricted. Filibuster expeditions are now attracting the attention of the people. The government has received word that armed invaders may be expected at any time.

The Lower California Cyclone.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—The 4th-echant's Exchange has received off-shoot news from Guaymas concerning the recent storm. The message states that the Mexican schooner Comet is a total loss, and her captain was drowned. The vessel went ashore near Atamuro, fifteen miles south of Altata. Sixteen coasting vessels in all, including the schooner Car, were wrecked at La Paz. One hundred and eighty-four houses were destroyed in La Paz, and five lives were lost.

Verdict Against a Street Railway.

TRENTON, Oct. 15.—Samuel Bennett yesterday received a verdict for $3,500 and Charles Cooper $1,400 in a damage suit against the Trenton Passenger Railroad company. Last May Cooper's horse was shocked by an electric current. The horse was injured and the wagon and harness demolished. Bennett was thrown out of the wagon and had his leg broken.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

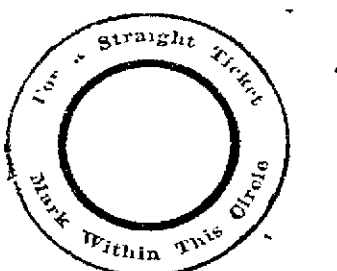

The great Democratic victory in Indianapolis on Oct. 8, at ex-President Harrison's home, has caused considerable excitement in New York as a favorable augury for Democratic success in the state. Great political significance is attached to this victory, as the city went Republican two years ago by 3,000 plurality. The Democratic plurality this year is 1,500.

The official statistics of the exports of American manufactured products, just issued by the government, furnish the largest showing ever made in the whole history of the United States. A new era has dawned upon American manufactures under the beneficent influence of the Democratic tariff.

REGISTRATION DAYS.

Friday and Saturday of this week, October 19 and 20, are the last days on which voters can register.

Every Democrat should register.
No registry, no vote.
Democrats, register, register, register!

The New York Goo-Goo has adopted an anchor as their party emblem. It is singularly appropriate the Goo-Goo's "anker" after office is the only reason for the existence of a Goo-Goo.

Orange county taxpayers will have to pay thirty-eight per cent. more on account of the State tax than they did last year. Republicanism is a costly luxury. Vote for a Democratic State government that will give the people an honest and economical administration.

In the test case made by the Westchester Racing Association, Judge Ingraham, yesterday, discharged President Lawrence, and decided that purses offered for races are not lotteries, and that there is nothing illegal in offering them and so advertising them.

In all parts of the county Democrats are taking hold of campaign work with earnestness, vigor and enthusiasm. County Chairman Robinson is greatly encouraged by the reports that reach him from the different towns and wards, and the plan of campaign which he has entered upon cannot fail to show good results on election day.

The excellent ticket nominated by Newburgh Democrats and their determination to make an aggressive fight against Odell ring rule in municipal affairs means that Democratic prospects in that city are brighter than they have been in years. The effort made for the local ticket will help all along the line and we confidently hope for good news from Newburgh on election night.

AN HONEST CONFESSION

(From the Sullivan County Republican.)
Letters received at the Republican office complaining that Mr. Kienrich was slaughtered in the Republican Convention, are withheld from publication because they are not calculated to do any good at this time. We fully concede that Mr. K. was clearly entitled to the nomination by precedent.

DICKY OR LEXOW?

(From the Albany Argus.)

This year Mr. Lexow could scarcely hope, other things being equal, to carry the county of Rockland, naturally Democratic, with a Democratic candidate of conceded popular strength selected from that county to try conclusions with him. As for Orange county, we have indeed misread the signs of the times if she is impatiently awaiting opportunity to return to the Senate a Senator, who seemed, to put it mildly, less concerned with local interests of his constituency than with a free advertising project of miscellaneous reform in the city of New York. We should expect, then, that, other things being equal, Mr. Dickey would enter the race on terms about equal, and with chances in his favor.

But back of Mr. Lexow's candidacy there is a personality greater than Lexow's, a question greater than his own success of failure. He is the favored lieutenant of Thomas C. Platt. The personal wishes of Mr. Platt overcame the objections of Mr. Odell, and caused Mr. Lexow's nomination. Mr. Platt's favor for Mr. Lexow was again signally demonstrated at Saratoga, when he made the Nyack Senator permanent chairman of his personally conducted convention. Mr. Platt trusts Mr. Lexow, and with reason, for Lexow never presumed to think a thought last winter without first submitting a rough draft of the thoughts he desired to think to his distinguished patron at No. 49 Broadway.

If, then, the citizens of the counties of Orange and Rockland desire another Platt Legislature; if they favor high tax rates and jugglery with alleged reform rather than unostentatious devotion to their immediate local concerns; if they desire to advance and to contribute to Mr. Platt's promising canvass for United States Senator, their problem is a simple one—they will simply make an X on the official ballot opposite the space reading "For Senator, Clarence Lexow." If they do not—to such as do not—favor this platform, the candidacy of Mr. Dickey is both a relief and an assurance of better things to come.

PORT JERVIS, Oct. 15.—A prisoner named Flaherty, who was being taken from this village to Albany penitentiary, in an effort to escape jumped from an Erie train near here, this morning.

"WHO THE -- IS SHAW?"

The First Man from the Town of Wallkill to Respond to the Nation's Call for Help in 1861.

The profane and ribald Press put the above question in the mouth of a Democrat on the day that Mr. William H. Shaw was nominated for Member of Assembly by the Democrats of this district. We are able, to-day, to answer the Press out of its own columns, and we reprint from the Orange County Press of April 19, 1861, the following article published under the heading, "The Pioneer in the Good Cause."

Among those of our citizens who belonged to military organizations in the city was William H. Shaw, of this village. On Saturday last he received a requisition by telegraph to join his company in New York the following morning. He made immediate preparations, and left on the evening train for that purpose, sailing the next day with his company in the R. R. Cuyler. Mr. Shaw being the pioneer from Middletown to assist in fighting the battles of his country, was accompanied to the depot by a large concourse of our citizens to bid him goodspeed on his mission. At the station he was feelingly addressed in a patriotic speech by C. O. McQuoid, Esq., who, at the close of his remarks, presented Mr. Shaw with a handsome five-barrelled pistol, costing $30, which had been purchased for him by some of our citizens. Mr. Shaw accepted the gift in a few fitting remarks, promising to use it efficiently in behalf of his country's flag and honor. The presentation over and the train having arrived, Mr. Shaw stepped aboard and amid the plaudits of the large assembly and the inspiring strains of martial music, was soon far away on his journey, to aid in asserting the rights and liberties of his country. All honor to those who fight the battles of the Republic.

Will Return in a Special Car.

Arrangements have been made for a special electric car for the return of Middletowners who attend the reception of Dr. and Mrs. Seward at Interpnee, Goshen, to-morrow evening. The car will leave Goshen at the convenience of the patrons.

MR. AND MRS. H. H. HUNT'S GOLDEN WEDDING.

Many Friends Extend Congratulations and Good Wishes—A Poem Written for the Occasion.

The reception given yesterday afternoon and evening by Mr. and Mrs. Hilaud H. Hunt, to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage, was attended by several hundred relatives and friends all of whom joined in hearty congratulations on the completion of half a century of happy wedded life and in sincere wishes that many years of usefulness and happiness might be vouchsafed to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt's charming home was made up usually attractive by beautiful decorations of palms and potted plants. Mrs. Hunt, who has not entirely recovered from the effects of an injury, which she sustained at Nyack, a few weeks ago, was compelled to sit while receiving her guests, but this in no way interfered with the warm and gracious welcome which she accorded them all.

Refreshments were served by Duncan, of Newburgh. The music was by Roeseher.

The guests from out of town were: Mrs. G. K. Olney, Mrs. Frank Matthews, Mr. Cliff H. Hunt, Mr. J. Newell and Mr. E. L. Crowell, of New York; Mr. W. Mairs and Mr. J. Mairs, of Brooklyn; Dr. and Mrs. Fred W. Seward, Mrs. J. M. Matthews and daughter, of Goshen; Mr. S. S. Steele, of Windham, and Miss Clara O'Neill, of Fallsburgh.

During the evening Mr. W. F. O'Neill read with rare feeling and expression a poem written for the occasion by Dr. Louis B. Couch, of Nyack, a bright young physician who attended Mrs. Hunt after she was hurt while visiting there and who learned to love as if she had been his mother. It was as follows:

1845—1895.

Fifty years ago, they say,
Fifty years ago to-day,
The red sun rose o'er Windham's hills,
Gem of the ancient Catskills.
It waited the gentle autumn winds,
They whispered glad news through the pines;
The robins heard the whispering,
And told the song birds they must sing
Their matin songs in sweetest way,
In honor of that wedding day,
And sing as they later sung before
On mountain high, or distant shore:
And sing the need of each one's love
That theme inspired in Heaven above.
And they all sang: 'Twas apropos
That wedding music long ago
And so from pasture, woodland, de la,
From early morn till night, they tell
How music bore the message far
In honor of a bride so true and rare,
And when a lull came in the song,
Was heard the cow bells quaint ding-a-long.

The wild flowers lifted up their heads
From out their soft, warm, grassy beds,
And opened all their petals rare,
And threw their perfume every where;
And some wished they might chosen be
For bridal crown, that they might see
And hear her take her vows of love
And register the same above:
While others hoped that they might greet
Her hand, or kiss her passing feet.

By distant Hudson's rocky shore
Stood Crowned mountain a-ore,
Wrapped in morning mist and cloud
That hung about it like a shroud
But the warmth and light of that Autumn day
Chased shadows, mists and clouds away.
There in depths of mountain shade,
Many a heart was comforted and made;
They were asleep on life's fair
That nodded an' swung in the morning air.
Purple hills, and tulips red
Had made them many a gorgeous bed,
Cupid, rascal, too was there,
Had hidden from a Windham on a rare
To tell the king of the elin band
That he must surely be on hand
With chariots, and courtiers gay,
To lend a charm to that glad day.
He picked the ring with a golden dart
And laughed as he awakened with a start
He raised his wand and every throat
Of a singing bird that could raise a note
Opened and sang in the sweetest way
Their ma in songs at the dawn of day.
He gave an order, strong and clear,
That all the birds in the woods, could hear:
"Over to Windham speed your way
'Tis Hilaud and Mary's wedding day."
In a hush of dew on roses fair,
They made them many a toilet rare;
Each glossy wing was polished bright,
And radiant shone in the morning light
Then off with prancing elin steeds,
They fair y new o'er hills and meads
And over meadows, ponds and lakes,
And they made their elin steeds and brakes
And reached old Windham just in time
The wedding bells began to chime.

"Would they cherish and love for aye?"
They answered "yes" in promptest way,
And then the pastor with lifted hand
Asked them to bless the bridal band,
With proud firm step the groom and bride
Away to the waiting carriage bide,
While furies danced before the pair,
With winsome step as light as air,
Dressed in robes of gold and green
Up spoke the charming fairy queen:
"Dear bride and groom thy life shall be
As calm and smooth as summer sea;
"By back to be sailed by perfumed winds
That toy with lilacs, etc. etc. such places:
Seld in clouds shall all their skies,
Belom tears bedim thine eyes;
Thy love, thy home and fast, log care,
Shall happy orphan child in share.
Hopeful, trusting, fond and true
Fifty years a-ore to you,
And we thy fairy guests, to day,
Will guard and guide thee all the way."

Then Jehu started down the road
To Otskill's quail, a what a-bode;
And Cupid rated his wand a-ale,
And all the birds on Hill and plain,
In mountain nook and in woodland dell
Sang their hearts' warmest "fare ye well."
Oh, how swift the years have flown—
Fifty years of labor done;
Fifty years of joy and pain,
That will never come again;
Fifty years of wedded love,
Foretaste of a Heaven above.

On this golden wedding day,
Let love hold her customary sway;
Flowers again their beauty lend;
Let faded benediction send;
Let sweet music fill the air,
Joy and peace be everywhere.

Father and mother, aged and gray,
Take our blessing on this day,
When your course of life is run,
And the parting hour doth come;
When your loving eyes shall close
In that wondrous last repose,
That shall know no waking here,
Sorrow, parting, smile or tear,
Keep us still in tenderest care,
Watching o'er us every where.

OBITUARY.

James Benton DeVed.

James Benton DeVed died on the old homestead at Phillipsport, Thursday, October 10, at the age of 55 years. He was the youngest child of Gabriel DeVed, who died last December at the age of 49, and his death occurred on the thirty-third anniversary of the day he was mustered into his country's service in Company E, 1431 Regiment. His death was due to a complication of diseases contracted in the army.

The deceased is survived by a wife and son, also three brothers and three sisters: Gabriel T. DeVed, of this city; Rev. William P. DeVed, Mrs. Thomas Russell and Mrs. John C. Hardenburgh, of Phillipsport; George L. DeVed, of Baltimore, Md.; and Mrs. Richard Hanyer, of Mountaide.

The funeral occurred at the house on Saturday, Rev. Geo. Barber officiating. Interment in the Phillipsport cemetery.

Mrs. Etsey Cunningham.

Mrs. Etsey Cunningham, wife of Matthew Cunningham, died this morning at her home, No. 28 Genung street, of heart disease, aged sixty-six years.

Deceased was born in Dublin, and came to this country forty-four years ago, since which time she has resided in this city. She is survived by her husband and two children, Bernard and Margaret, wife of Joseph Kiernan, both of this city; also by one sister, Mrs. Mary Pollard, and one brother, Peter Levins, both of this city.

The funeral will be held from her late residence, Thursday morning, at 9:30 o'clock with requiem high mass at St. Joseph's Church at 10:30 o'clock. Interment in the family plot in St. Joseph's cemetery.

NOT SO SURE AS HE WAS.

Senator Lexow is Commencing to Do a Little Quiet Reflecting.

The following choice political pointers were printed in Friday evening's issue of the Nyack Star:

Democratic papers of this district all speak in terms of praise of the Hon. George Dickey, candidate for Senator.

Futurists are guessing on Mr. Dickey's probable majority in this county. Will it reach into thousands?

There is no getting around the fact that Senator Clarence Lexow is not quite so sure of election as he was some time ago.

The eyes of the whole State are upon this Senatorial district, and in some respects the fight here is more important than in any other district.

Perhaps Senator Lexow will speak to some of the citizens now, whom he hardly deigned to notice while he was in the height of his glory as chairman of the investigating committee.

The talk of the Republicans that Rockland county is in their column and is there to stay is rank nonsense. Rockland is as Democratic as it ever was. Only when Democrats are divided has it been carried by Republicans, excepting a possible tidal wave.

Gone to Paterson.

Mr. Charles H. Brown has resigned his position with Mr. J. T. Robertson to accept the management of a grocery store, in Paterson, N. J. He left town, yesterday. Mr. Geo. W. Pine, of East Branch, who formerly clerked for Mr. Robertson, will take Mr. Brown's position.

A Missing Bridegroom.

An employee of the Newburgh powder mills and a young woman of that neighborhood were to have been married Thursday of last week, but the young man, after borrowing $40 from fellow employees, disappeared, leaving the expectant bride lone and lorn.

Norwich Baptist Church Trustees Sued by Parson Cass.

Rev. T. G. Cass, about whom all the trouble in the Norwich Baptist Church centres, has sued the old Board of Trustees for $850, which he claims is due him for his services as pastor from April 1st, 1895, to Oct. 1st, 1895. Mr. Cass made a formal demand for the money Friday, and began suit Saturday. The old trustees say that Mr. Cass has withdrawn from the church, that they owe him nothing, and that they'll be jiggered before they pay him a penny.

A Hard Headed Young Woman.

Miss Divine, a young woman, fell down stairs at Pleasant Valley, Dutchess county, Saturday night. Her head struck and smashed a door knob, but beyond a rash in the scalp the young woman wasn't injured.

AN ERIE AGENT MISSING.

About $500 of the Company's Money Also Said to Have Disappeared.

From the Newburgh Press.
C. Crane, the Erie's station agent at Salisbury Mills, is missing. In addition, it is asserted that at least $500 of the Erie railroad's money has also disappeared. The simultaneous flight of money and man occurred a week or so ago. R. O. Millsbaugh has just been appointed to the vacant position. Crane's predecessor, one Farrell, also ran away with Erie cash. The road, however, will lose nothing by the transaction, as the agent was secured by a bond.

A Reformer.
"Do I ride a bicycle?" said the heavy man as a look of disgust came over his face. "Well, I should say not. I can get bumps enough from the fellows who do ride them without trying it myself."
"Do you see this arm?" Leaded, rolling up his coat sleeve and disclosing a badly scarred forearm. "That's the result of my last encounter with a bicyclist."
"Run into?" Of course. I was crossing the street, and a fellow came whizzing up behind me at the rate of about 20 miles an hour. No time to dodge. He was looking over his shoulder at some girls. Guess. Anyhow, we collided. I rolled down on that arm, as you see. I went over three times, got on my feet and turned around to swear at the other fellow, but I didn't even have that satisfaction."
"Why not?"
"He hadn't come down yet. Must have thrown him 20 feet up into the air. I should say, and when he did come down he struck on his head. That was 36 hours ago. He hasn't come to yet."
"Poor fellow! He was seriously hurt, then?"
"Doubtful if he recovers, but I sent him the best doctor and the best professional nurse I could find and I'll spend $500 to bring him round all right."
"That's generous of you. The accident could not be blamed to you."
"Generous nothing! He won't think it's generous when he gets on his feet again. He'll wish he'd run me down."
"Because, sir, just as soon as he recovers I'm going to ground and kick him till he'll never be able to think of a bicycle again without feeling sharp pains shooting up his back." — Buffalo Express.

A Comedy of the Times.

He was in a great hurry. He rushed into the old style office building and bounded up the stairs two steps at a time.
Many a time and oft he had bounded up those stairs in the excitement of thought as he might be coming down and never had met with an accident.
But on this occasion it was different. When half way up he paused. "Curious on my luck!" he cried. To right and to left he looked for escape from the predicament in which he found himself, but without success.

There was nothing resembling escape on the premises.
"I have been able to pass others here before," he exclaimed.
But that did not help him.
Slowly, slowly, like a sullen soldier in retreat, he backed down the stairs to the main hall.
"Curious on the one who made them!" he cried in the bitterness of his defeat. Then he crowded himself into a corner and let the girl with the balloon sleeves pass. — Chicago Post.

Two Good Citizens.

Second Citizen—That's the talk. We need a good, clean man like Mr. Repub.

First Citizen—You're a liar.
Second Citizen—You're another.
They fight. — New York Weekly.

The Full Sunk.

The voice from the past sank to a hoarse whisper.
"You are made much of," it observed. The girl of the period laughed uneasily. "I wonder," she muttered, "if they will make any more of me."
Try as she might, she could not banish the haunting thought that possible dresses would be made of her. — Detroit Tribune.

How to be Handsome.

It is a mistake to suppose that the only way to be good looking is to be born so. Good health has more to do with good looks than anything else. Such diseases as constipation, dyspepsia, liver complaints, rheumatism, nervous disorders, &c., not only shorten life, but spoil temper and "looks." Bacon's Celery King for the nerves cures these troubles. John J. Chambers sells it and will give a sample package free.

We recommend DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure because we believe it a safe and reliable remedy. Its good effects are shown at once in cases of Cholera Morbus and similar complaints. W. D. Olney.

PROBABLE MURDER IN GOSHEN

Harvey Garner, a scampy Negro, shot in the head by Winfield Kingsley, who claims he shot in self defense—Garner's Ante-mortem Statement.

A well known colored man of Goshen, named Harvey Garner, was shot in the forehead by Winfield Kingsley, also colored, during a drunken fight, which occurred in front of the St. Elmo Hotel, at Goshen, about 9 o'clock last night.

Kingsley gave himself up to the police immediately after the shooting and was locked up in Goshen Jail.

Kingsley claims the shot was fired in self defense, as Garner was about to attack him with a razor in his hand.

Garner has a very unsavory reputation, with an inclination to "scrap" with or without provocation, while Kingsley is said to be a harmless sort of a fellow, at all times disinclined to pick a quarrel, but who is always ready to defend himself with knife, pistol or razor when attacked.

The men in company with two colored men from Newark visited this city yesterday afternoon, and while here in Goshen and also in a quarrel, which was continued when the party reached Goshen, with the above result.

Kingsley was arraigned before Justice J. B. Swezey, this morning. He pleaded not guilty to the charge of assault with intent to kill, and asked for counsel. He was remanded to await the result of Garner's injuries.

Justice Swezey learning of Garner's serious condition, sent for Coroner Decker, who took Garner's ante-mortem statement, as follows:

"GARNER'S ANTE-MORTEM STATEMENT. Harvey Garner, being duly sworn, says: I reside in Goshen, N. Y. My age is 25 years; have lived in Goshen about 10 or 12 years; realize that my condition is dangerous; I know that I am hurt. I don't know how I was hurt. (My folks told me I fell). I went to Middletown Monday afternoon. I went there with two fellows from Newark, N. J., to get a job on the street work with Orr Bros. It was about 2 or 3 o'clock p. m. I saw the man there, but did not get a job. We three of us went down on Fulton street, when we met a colored fellow named Will Kingsley from Goshen. Kingsley and I had trouble in Merritt's saloon, in Goshen, about a month ago.

The last night fellow got shaved in Prof. Henderson's. After Kingsley had been shaved the four of us then went to a saloon opposite Charlie Sharp's on Fulton street, where we had four of five beers. I bought some meat in Middletown near Franklin Square. Along about 8 o'clock the four of us, including Kingsley and the two colored fellows from Newark, took a trolley car for Goshen. In front of Walzenegger's saloon, when we were about ready to start for home Kingsley and I had a quarrel. I said, "Here, let's go," meaning the two Newark fellows. It was late and Mrs. Burke's house, where they were stopping, would be shut up.

Kingsley tried to pull them back. I told him to stop, when he called me a scamp. I was going to hit him then, but didn't. When we arrived at Goshen I asked him what he called me those names for. He clenched me and threw me, which hurt my side where I had been cut by a white fellow on Friday night when I got up I hit him twice. He said: "I'll fix you; wait till I come back." This happened near where the trolley stops.

These two colored fellows and I started to come across the Montgomery track toward the St. Elmo Hotel. I was between them. Kingsley had been away from us about ten minutes. He returned and came right in front of me and pointed a pistol at me and fired. That shot missed me, as the second also did. The third shot hit me on top of the head. I did not hear him say a word before or after the shooting from the time he left us at the trolley station. Blood came out of the wound on my face.

I came up to the St. Elmo hotel, where I saw Mr. William Thompson standing in the door. I said to him: "See whether the doctor shot me." He went to the door. I fell there. That is the last I remember. The next I remember I was on the sofa at my home. All I know is, there is a terrible pain in my head. I tried to take the trolley away from Kingsley after I was shot.

Harvey Garner
Signed in the presence of witnesses,
J. M. Ward
Abraham L. Decker,
Coroner.

Kingsley, when interviewed, evidently realized his unenviable position and refused to talk until he had consulted counsel.

Dr. J. M. Ward and R. L. McGeehan would make an examination of Garner's wound, this afternoon, with a view to locating and extracting the bullet.

Until the examination by the physicians is made it is impossible to state the chances of the man's recovery.

"The Common People.
As Abraham Lincoln called them, do not care to argue about their ailments. What they want is a medicine that will cure them. The simple, honest statement, 'I know that Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me,' is the best argument in favor of this medicine, and this is what many thousands voluntarily say.

"TUXEDO GALA DAY."

New Features and New Attractions Added to the Original Programme.

The postponement of "Tuxedo Gala Day," at Goshen, until Saturday next, is likely to result in making the affair more of a success than it would have been if held on the day first appointed, for, during the week, plans will be perfected and arrangements made that will add to the attractiveness of the event.

The Middletown Driving Park Association having kindly postponed its races until Oct. 23, the 245 class has been assured by the managers of Tuxedo Day and will be called at noon.

The parade will take place at 1 o'clock and to the original programme will be added special prizes for saddle horses, pairs, single horses and for a pony half-mile running race and a jumping class.

TROUBLESOME LIZZIE HALL-DAY.

Has a Tantrum Because Her Seat at the Table Was Changed.

From the Newburgh Telegram.

Mrs. Lizzie Halliday's murderous instincts are standing her well in hand. She is very troublesome at the Matetan asylum, and it has been necessary to keep her under restraint ever since her wild assault on an attendant. The vicious bit of femininity is quite uncontrollable nowadays. A few days ago she entered the dining room with the other female patients, and when she found that her place at the table had been changed she began to cut up capers. She refused to eat anything and was quickly ushered back to her cell. Since then it has been necessary to take her food to her cage. She refuses to eat anything but eggs and bread. Elizabeth is more trouble at the institution than all the other women combined. She has an imaginary grievance with the attendant she recently assaulted.

THE SPARKS DIVORCE CASE.

The Tables Turned, and the Wife Granted a Divorce from the Unfaithful Notorman.

Several months ago the city papers aired the marital troubles of Motorman Edward B. Sparks and Frances G. Sparks, the wife whom he abandoned several times and took back into his affections at soon as she earned a few dollars.

The publication of the story put Mr. Sparks in an unenviable light, and to vindicate himself he instituted suit for divorce. Mrs. Sparks put in an answer charging her husband with adultery. The case was referred to George H. Decker, Esq., who, after hearing testimony, reported in favor of granting Mrs. Sparks an absolute divorce. The report was confirmed and a decree signed by Judge Brown at Newburgh, Saturday, O'Neill & Royce were Mrs. Sparks' attorneys.

"VANDERBILT" ASSAULTED.

Matthew Landy Pays $5 for Pushing in His Face.

Matthew Landy, colored, a new comer, picked a muss with boot-black Wm. Venable, better known as "Vanderbilt." Landy landed with telling effect upon "Van's" lower lip, causing that portion of "Van's" anatomy to swell to such enormous proportions that he was scarcely recognizable when he appeared before the Recorder to make a complaint.

Landy was arrested and paid five dollars for his "fun" with the "King of Fulton street."

The Forty Hours' Adoration, which began in St. Joseph's Church, Sunday, ended this morning, the last mass having been celebrated at 9 o'clock by Rev. Father Lenee, of New York city, at one time assistant to Rev. Father McManis. A Paulist father from New York assisted Father Lenee. The attendance at all the services was very large, the church at the 5:30 o'clock mass, this morning, having been well filled.

Peach Orchard Damaged by Frost.

From Our Coleville Correspondent

Jack Frost was around, last Thursday night, with all his severities. Ice formed an inch thick in some places. At Beemerville the late peach crop is ruined. Warren Haggerty will lose 800 baskets and B. D. Howell 5,000, so the story goes. At any rate it was a very cold night.

ON ACCOUNT OF A SICK HORSE.

An Arrest That Came to Naught—Civil Actions Threatened.

Several weeks ago, a young New Yorker, a former resident of this city, hired a horse from a local liveryman and returned it in a very sick condition. The liveryman caused the young man's arrest upon the charge of cruelty to animals, and the case was adjourned until this morning for trial. The defendant appeared with an array of witnesses, who were prepared to swear that he had used every precaution when he found the animal was sick, and that he drove it home upon the advice of a veterinary surgeon, whom he consulted, and whom he paid for the advice and treatment.

The complainant failed to appear and the case was dismissed. It is said that the liveryman will bring a civil suit for $150 damages, the value of the horse, and that the defendant will bring suit for false arrest and damages to the extent of the expense to which he was put in bringing witnesses from distant points to testify in his behalf.

THE GRASSHOPPER PLAGUE.

Reminiscences of the Pests that Ravaged Sullivan and Delaware Counties—Will They Come Next Year?

From Our Up-Midland Correspondent.

The grasshoppers that ravaged these Midland counties seem to have gone in streaks. One Sullivan county farmer who sowed four bushels of buckwheat harvested six bushels, while his neighbor not more than half a mile away sowed two bushels and harvested sixty-five. A Delaware county farmer sowed twelve bushels of seed and the hoppers struck it in such force that he abandoned it before it was cut of the blossoms and turned his cattle into the field to save what he could of it. Some of his neighbors within sight had excellent crops.

The question now uppermost in the minds of our farmers, will these pests come again in full force? If they should make a farm will be abandoned.

THE NEW ENGLAND SUPPER.

The First Congregational Ladies Entertain Many of Their Friends.

The New England supper at the First Congregational Church, last night, was attended by a much larger crowd than in any previous year. The supper was a very fine one, and consisted of chicken pie, Boston baked beans, mince pie, pumpkin pie, etc.

A great variety of very fine fruits and vegetables was displayed, and the attention of many was attracted by an enormous double squash. There were also several fine barrels of apples, potatoes and onions. All fruits and vegetables were donated, and were auctioned off later in the evening.

The ladies realized a very handsome sum from the supper.
